General Motors to Exhibit New 'Space Age' Car at Motorama

General Motors' greatest Motorama—featuring a "space age" car which people someday may be driving to launching sites of commuter rockets to the moon—will open in Los Angeles in less than two weeks. Workmen have already begun preparing the Pan Pacific Auditorium at 7600 Beverly Boulevard for the spectacular GM Motorama of 1961 which will open Saturday, Jan. 28 for an admission-free showing through Sunday, Feb. 5.

Assessor Opens Branch Office in City Hall

Taxpayers may now file annual property statements with the deputy assessors who are now calling at each residence in this area. County Assessor John R. Quinn announced today.

If not at home when the deputy calls, this required statement may be filed at any one of the 78 branches throughout the county. A doorknob notice is left by the deputy assessor at each home when the resident is not in, and this notice lists all branches.

For the convenience of residents of this area, a branch office of the County Assessor is located at Torrance City Hall, 3031 Torrance Blvd. and will be open from 9 to 4:30 until May 5.

The annual claims for the veteran or church exemptions may also be filed with this property statement at any of these branches.

Taxpayers are asked to be sure to bring with them any papers left at their doors and the exact legal descriptions of any real properties owned by them.

CIVIC SYMPHONY 34

Elyse Aehle, musical director and conductor of the Civic Symphony, is holding auditions for parts in the opera "Aida" which will be performed on March 5 at Redondo. The opera will be given in concert form with Italian text, using the full Civic Symphony orchestra, the El Camino College Community Choir, six soloists, in costume, and a narrator.

At present, the only soloist who has been decided upon is Stella Herman, instructor at El Camino who recently returned from a professional tour. She has been selected to sing the title role.

THERE ARE six more principals to be chosen. They are "Radames," tenor, who shares the lead with "Aida"; Amneris, mezzo-soprano; Princess of Egypt; "Ramfis," basso, high priest; "Pharaoh," basso, King of Egypt; "Amonasro," baritone King of Ethiopia; father of "Aida." A narrator also is to be chosen.

Those wishing to audition should contact the Civic Symphony office immediately. Individual hearings will be arranged. Call FR 5-2744 or write Symphony Audition, 1617 1/2 Montemar, Palos Verdes Estates. Applications will not be accepted after Jan. 20.

All singers must be well-rounded in opera and the arrator must be an experienced performer. Include the following information in your application: name, address, age, professional experience, where you have studied, and telephone number.

MORE THAN 35,000 square yards of custom designed drapery and fabrics are being hung in the auditorium and 20 miles of electrical cable are being installed to handle the show's galaxie of lights and special exhibits.

Automotive star of the new Motorama is Firebird III, the General Motors gas turbine powered "wonder car" which will be making its first public appearance in Southern California.

FIRST automobile to apply the tools of the space age—electronics, computers and transistors—to provide increased driving ease, safety and passenger comfort, Firebird III has no steering wheel.

Instead, it combines all steering, acceleration, braking and transmission selection into a single wing-shaped handle mounted atop a four inch control stick positioned between its two passengers.

THE SLEEK, pearl white car has twin bubble canopies to give its passengers maximum visibility. Large, gull-wing doors fold up electrically to give complete access to advance designed lounge type seats. The car's features are demonstrated at Motorama.

Firebird III heads an automotive "cast" of 63 new 1961 cars and 34 trucks, busses and earth movers in the most varied display of products General Motors has ever produced.

BESIDES utilizing the 96,000 square feet of Pan Pacific Auditorium, Motorama will occupy an additional 64,000 square feet of adjacent outdoor area for a display of heavy equipment.

Maintaining Motorama's long standing reputation as a "family show," this year's show includes "Ideas for Living"—a fascinating five room display of new ideas which can be incorporated into everyone's home. In addition, three new "idea kitchens" and nearly 100 new appliances will be shown.

A SPARKLING stage show "The Magic Man," created by Feurer and Martin who produced "Can Can" and "Silk Stockings" will be presented six times each Motorama day, featuring a Broadway cast of 50.

Of special interest to science-minded visitors of all ages will be Motorama's 150 new educational and scientific exhibits, many of them push button operated, covering everything from solar power and flying "platforms" to electronically controlled highways.

This will be the fifth visit of Motorama to Los Angeles since General Motors first applied the name to its new type industrial spectacular in 1950.
